TCI'S MONTHLY NEWSLETTER

WWW.TALL.ORG

FEBRUARY 2025

THE PREZ SEZ...

Hello Tall Friends,

I hope the new year has been treating all TCI Clubs and Members at Large well.

We had a blast in Chicago at the 60's Sitcom Weekend. We really needed to get our "TCI Fix" as it had been too long since we had seen many of our TCI family. I thank Paramount Tall Club of Chicago for continuing to put on a weekend and bringing us together. I'm looking forward to next year's 80th anniversary weekend.

If you've been following my monthly reports, you know I consistently encourage you to grow your clubs. How is that going? Are you successfully bringing in new members?

As you may be aware, Patty and I are working on starting a club in Syracuse. Whenever I encounter a tall individual, I make it a point to engage in conversation. So far, I've handed out around a dozen cards this February. Progress can be slow, but most people I speak with think it's a fantastic idea. I just hope they visit the website and consider attending an event.

I need each club to reflect on the issues TCI will address at the Delegate Meeting this July, including:

- Proposals for changes to the TCI bylaws
- Merit Awards
- Nominees for the Lifetime Achievement Award
- TCI officer positions available for election this year: VP Membership, Finance Officer, Secretary, Miss TI Coordinator, and Alt Treasurer
- The future of the Miss TI program
- Potential locations for future conventions and clubs or committees
- New club development
- Will your club send a delegate?
- If you could change one thing about TCI, what would it be?

Please feel free to email me. My inbox is always open, and I'll be happy to respond to your questions and comments.

Lastly, have you paid your annual dues to TCI yet? They are due NOW. Please reach out to Oliver for payment details.

Warmest Regards,
Bob Huggett

Walter Narog
RIP
FEBRUARY 2025

I first met Walt in the fall of 1997. Having recently joined the Baltimore Tall Club, this was my first weekend event. The six-hour drive up Interstate 81 North to Harrisburg, PA, where State Routes 11 and 15 head directly through the picturesque Mid-Pennsylvania mountains, was truly scenic. The blue skies and sunshine, combined with classic tunes from the '70s playing on the radio, made the journey enjoyable.

The Crowne Plaza in downtown Rochester, NY, served as the hub for the weekend's activities. I had previously met Walt (affectionately known as Wally) at an event in Baltimore, so I was relieved to see at least one familiar face in the crowd.

We gathered for a Thai dinner just a few blocks from the hotel, joined by over twenty people. After a delightful meal filled with engaging conversations, we returned to the hotel to prepare for the evening party. The theme was The Rock and Roll Hall of Fame, showcasing a fantastic lineup of rock legends from that era, including Dicky Betts, Jimi Hendrix, Tom Petty, Keith Richards, Stevie Nicks, Alice Cooper, and many more.

Wally and I shared a remarkable bond through our mutual love for music. We performed at various events throughout the TCI organization, including the 2013 Convention in Las Vegas with the All-Tall Band. This ensemble consisted of tall club musicians from across the country, who practiced individually and managed to deliver outstanding entertainment during our only two-hour rehearsal before the convention.

Wally and I frequently traveled back and forth between Rochester and Hagerstown to hang out and play music, whether at home or out on the town. On numerous occasions, Wally joined me with The LAKOTA Band in the Hagerstown, MD area.

His answering machine offered a snapshot of the colorful characters that defined his life: "Hello. This is Walter, Walt, Waldo, Wally, Wally World, and Wally Moon. None of me is here right now."

His cheerful demeanor shone through at every occasion, complemented by his gentle smile and signature dark sunglasses, which became his trademark.

Wally's fondness for 1800 tequila and various types of moonshine led to many memorable moments during TCI weekends and conventions. He was a prominent figure in the TCI community, dedicated to connecting with as many people as possible. His warm smile and infectious laughter will be deeply missed by those who considered him a true friend.

Godspeed, my friend. May you play your music alongside all those who have come before you. May your memories be cherished by those who knew you, and may your kindness multiply throughout the TCI Organization.

This is my heartfelt tribute to my friend, Wally. Rest in peace.

Hi All,

At this year's convention in Grand Rapids, the TCI Foundation will return to our tradition of having a scholarship fundraiser auction. There will be a live auction for higher demand items such as bottles of alcohol, club weekend packages, etc. At the same time we will have a silent auction with bidding sheets for the lower demand items such as gift cards.

Individuals or clubs wishing to donate, please provide a description of the item, the retail value, and your suggested minimum bid to Sheila Koster at bskoster@aol.com by June 1 and bring your items to convention with you. Please provide the item to me, Marie Austin, by Monday, the first day of convention. If you need to ship something please send me an email at marie.austin999@gmail.com to arrange. I highly recommend items like gift cards, club weekend packages, timeshare trades, etc. that are easily packed in a carryon bag. (Suggested retail value $50 and up.)

Additionally, the ever popular split the pot raffle will be held once again.

See you at convention!

Marie Austin

As part of the European Meeting 2025, we invite you to "experience" Duisburg and the Ruhr area on foot, by bike, by bus and, of course, the largest inland port in the world from a ship. Former slag heaps have become artificial mountains, which today offer a view not only of the Rhine, but also of the entire Ruhr area with interesting works of art. Despite the big city flair, a week together with short distances, many joint leisure activities with a wide variety of gastronomy and hotels within walking distance in the centre await you.

The daily get-together in the evening will not be neglected either.

PROGRAMME OF EVENTS
